[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—"I cannot

that I have never directly or indirectly, in person or through any incorporation or individuals, contributed,

authorized or advised the expenditure of any money improperly to influ-

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, makes this statement in a letter to M. Lynn Bruce, chief counsel for the Legislative Investigating Committee before which he was a witness last week.

The letter was made public tonight

with a brief letter from F. E. Stur-

He said that he himself was in error when he testified recently that James W.

Wadsworth, Jr., Speaker of the State

Assembly, recommended as counsel for the racing interests E. T. Coyne of Livingston County. This recommendation, he adds, came from the elder

Racing.

BELMONT'S LETTER.

The claim is made, as I understand it, that money was used to bribe mem-

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Sloan of Arizona, who is in Washington, said today that he did not think the people of that Territory would ratify the constitution now being prepared. Asked "Why?" He said: "Well, they will not approve of the recall of judges, in my opinion, for one thing, and there are other things. If that constitution goes through, they will need to enlarge the insane asylums out there. And anyway, they can never get it ready to submit to Congress before adjournment on March 4th."

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Dec. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A few propositions over until this last week of the Constitutional Convention occupied most of the day's session. The only one which provoked any particular discussion was the Cuniff measure making employers liable for damages caused by employees through the negligence of fellow employees. That measure was a bit radical may be argued when it is appreciated that Oklahoma Constitutional clause on subject finally was passed through influence of the conservative membership.

According to Judge Baker, the original bill was absolutely unfair to the employer, who would have had no defense except when the employer had deliberately committed subversity compensation bill, providing that some arrangements he made for the payment of wages for injuries received by him while at their work, was by-passed entirely in its original form. A similar arrangement among the employees of the Copper Company at Bisbee and Dougglas convention saw fit to decide on the design of the seal that shall be used by the original superior. The original suggestion was the seal contain a portrait of the State with the visage of Jefferson. The radicals sought to have it downed by a vote of 23 to 19. The validation act passed, provided no amendment to the state of territorial acts not repugnant to the Constitution, continuing contracts and debts in force and leaving territorial officers in place of their successors quality.

Proposition permitting amendment of the Constitution by a majority of the electors went past reading.

ADOPT PENAL CLAUSE.

It was an attempt to revive the bill of Legislative Research but discussion balked. As no proposal had been made for reformatory and penal institutions a clause during the present system was hurriedly adopted.

Opposition to the bill of the State to issue them, I commenced some twelve actions in the name of the people of the State of California in the Superior Court of Los Angeles county with the object of securing a judgment canceling such patents. In October and November, 1909, the court, after trial, briefer and submitted, and decisions are due.

Should the State be successful in these cases it will follow that Willington Bay will be released from all claims of private ownership and the benefits of a free harbor, secured to Southern California.

New County Ordinance Permits In-

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5.—The Board of Supervisors, by a vote of three to two, today amended the saloon ordinance to permit the opening of saloons in the county outside of Stockton and other incorporated cities on Sundays. The reason given for the action is that the saloon question was submitted to the people at the general election and in precincts where the majority was for saloons it was concluded to change the county restrictive ordinance to meet the popular will.

The court, however, announced their intention to make it a test case of the retroactive clause of the "White Slave" Act passed at the last session of Congress, which will be carried to the Supreme Court, according to a statement by the woman's attorneys today.

PRECEDENT SET.
RAIL FOR FEDERAL PRISONER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—For the first time since the famous deportation case of Toy in 1905, a political prisoner was admitted to bail in the Ninth District of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals when Judge Dean, sitting in the Federal District Court for Northern California, today released Kimi Terada, a Japanese woman, against whom the immigration authorities have brought deportation proceedings. The case has attracted wide attention.

Terada, who has been held since the time of her trial against the law, the provisions will remain dry.

Stockton saloons are open Sunday under city ordinance. The county ordinance has stood against Sunday opening for two years.

LANG DIVORCE SWITCHED.

Decree Granted Husband Is Set Aside and One Is Granted Wife to Her Financial Advantage.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Ore.) Dec. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The most trouble of the day, however, was the settlement of the dispute of Lang & Company, wholesale grocers, and Mrs. Alice Marie Lang, formerly Miss Alice Basar of San Francisco, who were settled at Oregon City Saturday, according to announcement made yesterday, by the attorney in the case.

Judge James U. Campbell granted a decree of divorce to Mrs. Lang, this decree being a substitute for the one granted to Louis Lang in the same court on May 21.

By agreement between the attorneys in the case, the decree signed on May 21, was set aside about ten days ago and Mrs. Lang filed a cross-complaint. The evidence was taken quietly on Saturday. Matters pertaining to division of property were settled at the hearing.

According to Attorney Malarkey, Mrs. Lang has been handsomely provided for.

The cross-complaint which Mrs. Lang filed at Oregon City a few days ago, with the property agreements satisfactory to her, had been entered into between her husband and herself.

Her action to set aside the May 21 decree, she declared that four notes for $5000 each, which her husband agreed to give her at that time as a settlement, he'd never come into her possession and that she did not know where he had gone.

She had, she said in this complaint, signed an indorsement on them reading, "Interest paid to January 1, 1911."

J. M. Malarkey, attorney for Lang, said tonight that the new property settlement disposes of these notes. He said they had been held by a trustee. The decree granted Saturday does not restore to Mrs. Lang her maiden name.

Official File Biennial Report
With Gov. Gillett, Citing His Opinions Which Prompted the Filing of Suits to Revest State's Title to Lands.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Attorney General Webb in his biennial report filed with the Governor today refers to the San Pedro Harbor litigation as follows: "In the year 1908, after a careful investigation of the law, I advised Surveyor General Kingsbury of my opinion that the State was without power to convey for private purposes lands lying beneath lines of roadway high and ordinary low mark and that the State had power to sell such lands only in aid of navigation and commerce. Acting upon such advice the Surveyor General has since refused to file applications for the purchase of lands of such character.

"Early in the year 1908 my attention was called to the fact that many years ago a suit had been leased by the State to various individuals and corporations, conveying to them practically the entire bed of Wilmington Bay as well as the tide lands bordering upon the channel leading from Wilmington Bay to the Pacific Ocean.

"Entertaining grave doubt as to the validity of these patents and the rights of the State to issue them, I commenced some twelve actions in the name of the people of the State of California in the Superior Court of Los Angeles county with the object of securing a judgment canceling such patents. In October and November, 1909, the court, after trial, briefer and submitted, and decisions are due.

layed because a clear title cannot be secured for the property desired in Knights Valley. It has been learned that the school will be built in Knights Valley, a part of the water front of an estate, and therefore the Trades School Commission has been unable to close the deal. The Sonoma site commission, however, is to be given a choice. If property cannot be obtained the commission may accept a site near Auburn.

Murdock of Kansas Sounds a Warning to Congress.

QUIT TALKING IS DEMAND; DO SOMETHING THE CRY.

MANY INSURGENTS PAY RESPECTS TO THE PRESIDENT.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT. WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The White House was the Mecca of many "insurgent" Republicans today, some of whom said they were invited by the President. Senator Bristow of Kansas was among the first callers, and was quickly followed by Representatives of Nebraska, Murdock and Madison of Kansas and Hayes of Louisiana.

The "insurgents" said they talked with the President about features of his message which will be read to Congress tomorrow and also about the vacancies on the Supreme Court bench.

Although they admit that efforts at conciliation are in the air, the "insurgents" continue to sing a militant song. Representative Murdock declared he had traveled all over the country in the last three months and that he knew the temper of the people.

They want the woolen schedule revised at this session of the Congress regardless of whether the tariff board is ready to report, "he said.

"Everybody is talking wool and the revision of the tariff, one schedule at a time. They are willing to wait for the tariff board, on all of the tariff schedules except wool. And when the schedule is revised the people want woolen cloth tagged to show the amount of wool and the amount of cotton used in it."

The people want Congress to do something and quit talking so much. They say we can pass the appropriation bills by holding night sessions and that we should devote the days to revising the wool schedule. The political unrest of the people is not partisan and any man in public life who stands up will himself be badly mistaken.

The eyes on the higher courts and they do not want decisions rendered merely on technicalities.

Senator Bristow urged the President to appoint Judge Hook of the Eighth

United States Circuit to the Supreme Court.

Senator Bristow said he agreed with many of the President's recommendations in his message, disagreed with others. He will oppose a ship subsidy bill, but will earnestly advocate the fortification of the Panama Canal, and will fight for a permanent tariff commission.

LAME DUCK ALLEY SHUNNED. SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES PREFER STANDING IN LINE AT WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—"Lame Duck Alley" again proved unpopular today during the Congressional reception hours at the White House. It was shunned by Senators and Representatives alike; they seemed to prefer standing room only in the regular waiting room to sit in the richly upholstered chairs and sofa placed in the newly screened-off corridor.

Senator Dewey of New York strolled into the alley absent-mindedly and sat there for ten minutes. He afterward declared that he found it very comfortable.

LITTLE NEGRO BLOOD COUNTS. GIRL BARRED FROM SCHOOLS. ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The possession of one-sixteenth negro blood gives a person under the classification of "negro."

Immediately afterward came the opening prayer of Dr. Ulysses Grant Price, who referred to the unusual number of negroes within Congress.

Senate call that followed disclosed eight Senators present, only eight failing to respond.

Resolutions by Senators Hale and Cullom providing for the notification of the House and the President, respectively, that the Senate had passed for business, were adopted.

Senator Cullom and Mr. Money, of Mississippi, were appointed to wait upon the President. The secretary of the Senate was instructed to carry the necessary information to the House.

Death announcements were made in the order of seniority and in each case by the colleague of the deceased member.

Senator Martin of Virginia, broke the official news of the death of Senator Daniel of that State. Senator Bacon announced that Senator Foster had died. Senator Foster had formed a like service for Senator McRae of Louisiana, and the series closed with an announcement of the death of Senator Dooliver of Iowa, by Senator Cummins. All spoke in fitting terms of the departed. When the evidence showed the girl had one-sixteenth negro blood in her veins.

SHUT OUT UNSKILLED LABOR, IS ADVICE OF COMMISSION.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Sentimental considerations in restricting immigration should be waived in the face of economic problems arising from adverse action on wages and living conditions produced by the entry of many aliens into basic industries, according to the final report of the Immigration Commission, transmitted to Congress today.

The commission unanimously urges the reduction of unskilled labor immigration.

The present immigration movement says the report, in large measure, is due to economic causes, but migration from Europe is not now an absolute economic necessity, and as a rule those who emigrate to the United States are impelled by a desire for better conditions rather than by the necessity of escape from intolerable social conditions.

The commission presents several proposals by which restriction of immigration might be effected, including a reading and writing test, the exclusive

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—George S. Hobson, superintendent of a private detective agency conducted by Miss Cora M. Strayer, was shot and probably fatally wounded yesterday by Stephen Ayers, a discharged employee.

MARY MYERS, a maid employed at the offices, witnessed the shooting and, with him, the possession of the revolver. Hobson, after recovering away from the door and Ayers had his revolver leveled at him when Miss Myers caught his arm and pulled it down. At the same instant the revolver was discharged, the bullet passing through Ayers clothing and inflicting a slight flesh wound. The revolver was indicted first in 1905 as president of the Transatlantic National Bank of New York City, on a charge of intent to defraud the bank by causing it to discount improperly single commercial paper amounting to about $1,500,000.

The Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York, when the indictment was brought before it, declared it was defective.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The White House was the Mecca of many "insurgent" Republicans today, some of whom said they were invited by the President. Senator Bristow of Kansas was among the first callers, and was quickly followed by Representatives of Nebraska, Murdock and Madison of Kansas and Hayes of Louisiana.

The "insurgents" said they talked with the President about features of his message which will be read to Congress tomorrow and also about the vacancies on the Supreme Court bench.

Although they admit that efforts at conciliation are in the air, the "insurgents" continue to sing a militant song. Representative Murdock declared he had traveled all over the country in the last three months and that he knew the temper of the people.

The exposition committee is working systematically to win support among Congressmen and all profits to be made in meeting with much encouragement.

THEIR CHANCE
LYNN AGREES
ON CONDITION.

He Will Fight Sullivan for Thirty Per Cent.

Consents to Side Bet and It Is Put Up to Long.

Webster-Rivers Bout Is Off
for Time Being.

Jim Flynn has agreed to meet Dan Sullivan in a twenty-round bout at Carson under the auspices of the Pacific Athletic Club provided he is guaranteed 20 per cent. of the receipts.

Under instructions from Manager McCarey, George Hancock has instructed Baron Long, managing Sullivan, to pay Flynn 20 per cent. of the gross, the match is on.

Flynn agrees in addition, to cover the $1000 side bet demanded by Long, but his reason for demanding the big share of the receipts is because he desires that he is the drawing card.

The bout, which was to be made, would have been on December 10, Christmas Day, or New Year's. All dates are open as Joe Rivers has announced that an operation on his nose is necessary and that he will not be able to meet Webster until probably in February.

The fight situation is somewhat uncertain, mainly because there are no good road to bring together. There are many ordinary boxers in Los Angeles qualified for a fight, but it is hard to figure how these men will draw in main events.

The best figures are Sack, East and West, and Battling Nelson, both fighters, Battling Nelson is late on the shelf, Wolgast is not ready to fight because of recent injuries, Attell is too busy cleaning up easy money in sucker towns, Morris has gone to England, and others will fight Langford or Johnson.

Manager McCarey figures that gradually he will have to build up the game again to develop champions. If a few bouts are to be placed of sufficient quality it will give impetus to the game by which McCarey believes the old-time competition can be revived with many improvements.

POLICE COMMISSION

CHIEF DOESN'T
DROP JOB YET.But the Board Is Looking for a New Man.Change May Not Be Made for Two Weeks.Talumantes Is Acquitted of Reds' Charges.The resignation of Chief Galloway was not presented at the meeting of the Police Commission last night, consequently the commission could not act on it. Reports during the day had stated that the resignation had been telephoned, and other reports told of men who had been offered the place. Two of the men mentioned said they had received no tender. The Chief was there in full uniform and rather gracious, thank you. For once the commission got through its work by 10 o'clock.A member of the commission said action on a change in the head of the force might not be taken for two weeks.
It is now certain that a new man is being looked for and that the search is going on in the department.
It is believed Galloway has given the Major verbal assurance (possibly in a whisper) that he is ready to retire whenever a successor can be decided on. A decision seems hard to reach, however.

TALAMANTES ACQUITTED.

Detective Felipe J. Talamantes, who has been the object of persecution by the men mentioned, was acquitted on all counts and restored to duty with full pay. His trial has occupied weeks and has caused much worry to an officer who has served sixteen years on the force without previous citation or merit. The Mayor, Davidson and Wellborn voted to acquit and Talamantes and Johnson voted in the negative.The Rice brothers, also detectives, who were jointly accused with Tala-mantes, were acquitted two weeks ago and restored to duty with full pay. Their attorney for the widow of Carl Leopold, who killed himself because the commission would not approve the transfer of a saloon for which he paid $16,000 to another man, said he gained a permit for the place—116 North Spring street—where Leopold conducted his business, did not succeed, although the commission commended his action in refusing to issue the license for the saloon.After a brief northern journey he will return to the commission and will recur on the Los Angeles scene.He is accompanied by the director of his American tour, Mortimer Lazard of this city."THE TIMES" SPECIAL HOLIDAY BOOK SECTION.EXT Sunday The Times will print a special Holiday Book Section, devoted exclusively to the books and book news of the fall of 1910.It will give reviews of all the important books published this autumn, including works of fiction, religion, poetry, drama, science, travel, biography, belles-lettres, etc.There will be an abundance of news of the writer folk, their lives, methods of work, homes, habits and plans for the future.The reviews will be departmentized and arranged in order of their importance, the object being to facilitate the purchase of holiday books for the reader or gift-giver who has no time for personal investigation.

A warning will be sounded against the poor and worthless books.

There will be an important list of the best juvenile books for children of all ages.No one should attempt to do his holiday shopping without this book section. It is arranged to facilitate the selection and the purchase of holiday books of every description.

one of two or three vigorous young Americans not at the Metropolitan.

"The Girl of the Golden West," represents Puccini in continuous uninterrupted. The orchestration is tremendous. There are no set solos, in the sense of the term. The dialogue is music as it is in the play. The dialogue is music as it is in the play.The subject of Prof. Francis's address was "Some Problems of Home and School." To give direction to the rising generation and to anchor young folks to something in life, are problems confronting the home and the school. Club
men, he stated, are quite susceptible to
the establishment of trade schools
for the other boys and girls, but he added, "your boys and girls should be given the same opportunities, if they are to
understand and cope with the problems
of life. The world today is suffering from a lack of good, from the artificial, perfected white lies of society."Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of
more than $50,000, and contains no
quinine, which we have conclusively
demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.Take this harmless Compound as directed with the knowledge that there is nothing in it which will cure you
of colds or grippe, misery made anywhere else in the world, which will cure you
of colds or grippe, misery made anywhere
else in the world.In his opinion the playground idea
may be overdone. He would not praise
young people's play time entirely away
from them, but many a boy is devoting
time at the playground that should be put in mowing the lawn at home.Speaking of a tendency toward
dissipation in children, he said it was dissipation of the spirit that was
the real trouble, and that the spirit of the schoolboy was the most important work for women to do.Although Prof. Francis admitted that he had virtually committed himself in favor of woman's suffrage, in his address yesterday he said he had not
done so because he thought it was so important for women to do which they have so far neglected.To occupy any position a man must be prepared for it, but woman is not prepared for work she does not do.All housekeepers should understand food chemistry, as well as be a mistress of finance. She should also be the standard bearer of art in national and city life, he said. In this, she has a special work to do, he said.Prof. Francis said that driving a car is a sport, and it is a good one, he said.FIREPROOF SCHOOL BUILDINGS One of our buildings that are fireproof is the school building at the corner of 11th and Olive, he said.Prof. Francis, aged 5 years, was buried to do what he could for the world.Rev. Dame Bartlett also addressed the club women yesterday, bringing them a "message from the other side."His address was a story of settlement work in the East and in Los Angeles, and it was illustrated with spectro-

TALK RIGHT AT 'EM:
HASN'T SOLVED
KITCHEN PROBLEM
FRANCIS TELLS CLUB WOMEN
WORK NEGLECTED.Tendency Toward Dishonesty in School Life Due to White Lies of Society—Over-Supply of Young People Anchored to Nothing and Stand Nowhere.Superintendent of Schools Francis, in an address before the Ebell Club yesterday afternoon, took a stand against the tendency to arraign society and club women in general. He declared that one of the greatest problems in school life today is a tendency toward dishonesty, which he unhesitatingly stated, is due, in a great measure, to the artificial, perfected white lies of society.The subject of Prof. Francis's address was "Some Problems of Home and School." To give direction to the rising generation and to anchor young folks to something in life, are problems confronting the home and the school. Club
men, he stated, are quite susceptible to
the establishment of trade schools
for the other boys and girls, but he
added, "your boys and girls should be
given the same opportunities, if they are to
understand and cope with the problems
of life. The world today is suffering from a lack of good, from the artificial, perfected white lies of society."Pape's Cold Compound taken over 2 hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.You distinctly feel the cold breaking and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving after the very first dose. It promptly ends the most miserable headache, neuralgia pains, dullness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, sores, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.Pape's Cold Compound is the result of
three years' research at a cost of
more than $50,000, and contains no
quinine, which we have conclusively
demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.Take this harmless Compound as directed
with the knowledge that there is
nothing in it which will cure you
of colds or grippe, misery made anywhere
else in the world.In his opinion the playground idea
may be overdone. He would not praise
young people's play time entirely away
from them, but many a boy is devoting
time at the playground that should be put in mowing the lawn at home.Speaking of a tendency toward
dissipation in children, he said it was
dissipation of the spirit that was
the real trouble, and that the
spirit of the schoolboy was the most important work for women to do.Although Prof. Francis admitted that he had virtually committed himself in
favor of woman's suffrage, in his address yesterday he said he had not
done so because he thought it was
so important for women to do which they have so far neglected.To occupy any position a man must
be prepared for it, but woman is not prepared for work she

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

BISHOP CONATY'S COMMENDATION.

FORCEFULLY POINTS OUT THE DUTY AND PRIVILEGE.

Rev. Burdette and Mayor Earley of Pasadena Also Deliver Addresses at the Meeting of the Associated Charities of the Crown City—Pretty Social Affairs.

Office of the Times, 28 S. Raymond avenue.

PASADENA, Dec. 6.—A move has been started among our charity workers here in Southern California to hedge our legislators to have a bill passed at the next session to provide here in our loved southland, a home for those who come to us suffering from tuberculosis. It is a thing which we have overlooked and now that the move has been started I hope that we may soon have such an institution," said the Rt. Rev. Bishop Thomas J. Conaty, last night in an address before the members of the Associated Charities of Pasadena.

Bishop Conaty delivered one of the strongest addresses on charity ever heard in this city. He started in with the organization of the "Associated Charities in Worcester, Mass., of which he was one of the charter members and in which organization he has been an active member since.

After all what is there in life worth living for if it is not for the good we can do; the satisfaction of knowing and feeling that we have done all we can do; and he who is needed in this world is charity for charity's sake. It is charity in the spirit of Christ. To give to the beggar is to make him a beggar. The best charity of all is the charity of selflessness and not benevolence; the spirit of brotherhood. To give to the beggar is to help himself. The best charity is to help others to overcome his poverty. This is the greatest difficulty we have in this great work.

"We are never so dependent as when we are held down by poverty among us. Hence the relief of this poverty is for the benefit of all of us. We are delighted to know that the funds of the Associated Charities are not down, but it will live on.

The members of the Police Commissioners yesterday afternoon the sum of $465 was appropriated to employ special policemen during the Tournament of Roses celebration.

The Maryland Garage Company, Inc., at their meeting there were photographs of the St. Mary's School.

During the month each year the St. Mary's Club, on the night of the Karminal, the secretary, there is no better organization for the uplifting of any community.

Charity should know no line other than the relief of the suffering. All religions are welcomed in the organization. The work of the Associated Charities is its duty to make investigations into cases which need help and to prevent impostors."

BURDETTE SPEAKS.

Following the address of Bishop Conaty Dr. Robert J. Burdette gave a short talk along the lines of the work of the Associated Charities. "I can speak truthfully on the work because I have been an object of charity myself," he said. "It is easier many times to give a beggar money than to make an investigation for that person.

The words spoken by Bishop Conaty were the best I have ever heard. The Lord gave a man a penny, but He did not give them to help themselves. He made the blind man see so that he could go out and work. He cured the leprosy so that he could earn a living.

The work of charity is to help the poor.

All of the teachings in the Bible tell us that charity is a duty. We tell many men that they have done their duty. But that is not so; they are always paying their debts. It is just the same as paying house rent or sleeping-car fare."

Major Earley also spoke commending the excellent work which is being done by the local organization. The members of the Board of Education, secretary and treasurer were read, showing the great amount of work which has been done during the past year. The report of the treasurer showed $115,196 cash on hand.

The directors elected were Leo J. McLaughlin, J. W. Wadsworth, L. C. Goodrich, J. McBride, W. D. Russell, C. C. Green, C. C. Macay, Edward A. Simonds, W. H. Holland.

OLD RESIDENT DIES.

Miss Increase R. Clapp, wife of L. R. Clapp, and one of the oldest residents of Pasadena, died yesterday afternoon at her home, No. 637 South Pasadena avenue, aged 83 years. Mr. and Mrs. Clapp came to this city from New Haven, Conn., and settled on a tract of twenty-five acres of land located east of Orange Grove avenue and south of California street, and on which they have since resided. Last March they celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Interment will be held from the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon; burial in Mountain View Cemetery.

FIGHTER APOLOGIZES.

W. R. Wilson, the grocery clerk who bit little Milton Fry, the 14-year-old delivery clerk, in the mouth while the boy was out delivering goods, last Friday night, yesterday made a public apology for his rash act. In doing so he stated that he thought the boy was a peeper and was trying to see what was going on in the Wilson home.

No. 280 North Main street.

Young Fry is still suffering much pain from the blow received in the mouth, and in view of the great amount of precious which has been brought to bear on the boy, he has been advised to stop the matter. Wilson states that the section of the city in which he lives is infested with "peeping Toms" and that the police seem to be unable to locate the particular persons who are the little Milton boys looking for a house number in front of his residence. He thought it was a good opportunity to get rid of a "peeper." It is believed the boy will start a new life in the northeastern part of town of the "peeping Toms." In the meantime, Milton Fry, who is a hard-working boy, will nurse his wound until it is well because he has no other recourse.

TO ENTERTAIN ADMIRAL.

Admiral H. Yashiro and his staff of naval officers who are now in San Pedro harbor with the Japanese training squadron, will be guests of Pasadena today. They will be given a luncheon at the Hotel Maryland.

after which they will be driven over the city and shown the various beauty spots.

Dawson Thomson yesterday announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence one of last year's debutantes, and George A. Miller of New York, N. Y., who has been in Pasadena several months. WILL COMPETE AT DOMINGUEZ.

SANTA ANA MAN BUILDING MONO-PLANE FOR THE MEET.

The armored cruiser California, flagship of the second division of the Pacific fleet, which entered the harbor yesterday morning and thereby established precedent, cleared this morning for an anchorage at Coronado.

The racing port it stopped too close to the south side of the channel and scraped a mud bank. It was extricated without difficulty. Other vessels of the fleet are expected to enter the bay.

ARIZONA TO "SHOW OFF."

The local Arizona society has taken up a private exhibit for the California Exposition to be held in this city in 1915. The society will install a relief map showing rivers, deserts and irrigation districts as well as more or less ground. It is during the meet in the competition for the California novice prizes. If his monoplane is successful, he will enter in competition also.

The effort is directed toward both home and foreign missions, and Mr.

Doughty said yesterday:

"It is almost a crime to label one little thing, 'home missions,' and another little thing, 'foreign missions,' for you can't accomplish anything with both."

The purpose of the institute being entirely educational, it is conducted on the lines of a school, the topics being outlined on charts. At the close, the design is to have so successfully educated the attendants, among whom are many pastors, Sunday-school superintendents, and other active church people, that mission-study classes will be formed in every church and Sunday-school.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

City Auditor Myers replied yesterday to the criticism of Councilman Washburn.

Attorneys Sanders and Vermylens talked bitterly about some of the parties interested in the disposition of the Thomas B. Tomb $30,000 check, made for the benefit of Thomas T. Harbison, his favorite nephew, in Judge Rives's court, yesterday.

The C. H. Ingerson case that occupied several weeks of Judge Bordwell's time, has come back to Department Nine, for a second hearing.

Maude Rice Ibbetson is given an allowance of $300 a month for the support of herself and three children, pending the hearing of the divorce action against Robert E. Ibbetson.

MYERS REPLIES TO WASHBURN.

AUDITOR DENIES GIVING OUT MISLEADING FIGURES.

He Declares His Aqueduct Balance as Given Out Was Correct, and That He Called Attention to Outstanding Obligations—Hearse's Financial Programme.

The first of the expected "manifesto" on the aqueduct finances came yesterday when City Auditor Myers filed a verbatim statement with the Council, replying to the strictures of Councilman Washburn's at last week's session. Washburn said city officials whose duty it is to furnish the Council with accurate figures had been furnishing misleading ones. This statement is assumed by Myers to reflect on his statement that the aqueduct balance Nov. 22 was $382,000, while Washburn showed it was $438,000 less by figures from Chief Accountant Hardin of the aqueduct department.

Myers, in his "manifesto" asserts that his books did show the larger balance and that his books are correct but that he has always called attention to the fact that there are outstanding demands and obligations which cannot be entered on the auditor's books. The way in which the Auditor's November statement was presented, published by a zealous administration press did not mention the outstanding obligations which made the reduction Washburn cited.

The Auditor, however, does not abandon his financial plan to invest the city's sinking fund in power bonds and still have the money to pay the aqueduct debt but he does not furnish information in the "manifesto" as to how this can be done. He remarks that he also declares that no member of the Council has been misled by his statements. He also says that he has furnished figures to the Mayor as the "fiscal agent" of the city, as the charter says, and that these are available for the information of the Council.

The Auditor has presented a table of aqueduct financial expectancy which, based on his books, shows that the syndicate will have an initial balance of $1,000,000 in items from all sources of $5,000,000 from all items December 1, and other items and $4,000,000 from the 1911 bond option, if it is exercised. Deducting the $1,250,000 needed for siphons, if that amount is needed, he allows $220,000 a month for work for the next thirty months. If the siphon work costs but $200,000 it may be reduced to $100,000 a month for the work. He furnishes other statements showing how this may be increased by using the sinking fund money but he assumes that the bond syndicate is sure to exercise its option next February.

City Hall Brevities.

The City Engineer has asked that an amendment to the Vrooman law be prepared by Leslie R. Hewitt, Senator-elect providing for some improvements under this act instead of the monotonous Green-Johnson law, which provides all sidewalk construction by private contractors.

The Southern California Chapter of the American Institute of Architects has asked that Building Inspector Buckin be sent at the city's expense as the representative of the city at the national convention of the Institute of San Francisco to aid in a revision of the Burnett's emanement laws.

The little yellow automobile of State Superintendent Ibbetson has won a place in the list of the Board of Public Works. It was declared after three years hard usage and the Council is asked for permission to purchase a new one.

The Council Street Committee has informed the attitude of the residents pertaining to the widening of Thirty-sixth street, from San Pedro street to South Park avenue, to a width of 50 instead of 40 feet.

TABASCO TANG TO ARGUMENTS.

LAWYERS WAX ELOQUENT OVER CLIENT'S CAUSE.

Tomb Case That Has Held Attention of Superior Judge Rives for Several Days Is Reaching End. Involves Confirmation of Appointment of Trustee for Nephew.

Some "tabasco" language was indulged in by opposing attorneys in an argument before Judge Rives, yesterday, on the petition brought by Henry M. Winter, to be confirmed as trustee under a declaration of trust involving a $30,000 note left by Thomas B. Tomb, the rich Kansas cattle man, for the benefit of his nephew, Thomas Tomb Harbison.

Attorney Sanders, on behalf of the Tomb heirs who are opposing the confirmation of Winter, alleged that the petitioner was being backed by the Merchants' Trust Company, in his efforts to get the handling of the money, that it was merely a commercial proposition with both Winter and the corporation, the one to handle the $30,000, the other to get an annual allowance for his services rendering over five years, for under the provisions of the trust, the money is to be held and invested for the benefit of the ward until he is 25 years of age. He is now only 13.

Attorney Vermylens, for Winter, argued that the stipulations of Thomas B. Tomb, the donor, against both his wife and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank O.

Harbison, allying he refused to give the money into the hands of either party, saying that he desired it held away from the influence of Mrs. Harbison.

"Nobody knows," stated Vermylens, "why he did not want his wife or his relative to have the handling of the fund, but there is a reason, and Thomas B. Tomb knows why."

The close relations sustained by Winter and Tomb were referred to at length, and much was made of Winter's testimony that Tomb just before his death, said that the money had been placed in Winter's care.

The case will be submitted this morning.

THE DIXON ESTATE.

W.A.CLARK, JR., ADMINISTRATOR.

In Judge Rives's court yesterday W. A. Clark Jr. was appointed administrator of the estate of former Judge W. W. Dixon of Butte, Mont., but for some time prior to his death he had been a friend of the Clark family.

It was allowed by Attorney Sanders that the first interest on the note amounting to $150 had been paid Winter by a check drawn by Tomb just before his death, and that the money had been placed in Winter's care.

The case will be submitted this morning.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

WHITE RIVER
IS EXCITED.

Report of an Oil Strike in Paying Quantities.

Lost Hills Syndicate Is a New Organization.

General News of Interest from Oil Fields.

Special Correspondence of The Times.

WHITE RIVER, Dec. 4.—With excitement having been occasioned in the White River country through the assessment by a former employee of the Reid Development Company, that oil in paying quantities has been struck in two of the four deep wells which the company has been at work upon in the White River hills for the past several months, and that orders have been entered for ten rigs from a Pennsylvania concern upon the condition that the rigs be brought here and installed within the next 120 days.

Violent denial to the contrary from the Reid people is nullified by the fact that their agents are busily engaged in securing all the loose land in the hills, land which would be available for nothing except grazing land, in case their statements that they are not after oil are true.

When the well on the first well was drilled down a few weeks ago, it was soon out that the search for water which the company claimed to be upon had proven fruitless and the rig was moved to another spot. As was soon found in abundance at almost any point in the valley, the story of water was not convincing, especially when a visitor to the well was politely told that the shack which was over the top of the casing was not the work of strangers.

It is asserted today that the well "abandoned" has been capped; that it contains a light gravel, and is paying quantities of oil. It is being estimated that other wells are brought in, when of them will be put upon the pump and a pipeline to the railroad put in.
Land prices, as a consequence of this,
have been soaring while the well was on the hillside, and a few months ago could have been secured for a cent a mile, are now being held at fancy prices as new oil lands are being opened up.
In the air is being built the cattle men, who see in the hill potentials millions.

Subsidiaries, in the service of the development, who have been two years in the service of the mounds to the east of this city, and repeatedly that the formation of Petersville hills and of the White hills was such as to argue a possible of the country.

AGAINST LEASING SYSTEM.

COALINGA OIL MEN ACT.

Special Correspondence of The Times.

COALINGA, Dec. 5.—At its regular meeting at the Pleasant Valley Hotel the Coalings Chamber of Commerce went on record against the leasing system in the government of oil fields, following an interesting discussion by S. A. Mathers, who is conceded to be one of the best oil operators in the California field. He has a resolution to be sent to the Government and President was adopted.

C. F. Fredrickson, who came here six months ago to demonstrate the Electric Fishing Magnet, and who said that tool, just perfected and rotary tool, will be the rotary tool, has looked at it and seen that the drilling of wells and the trial will be given it here in a short time.

W. H. Shaw, who has been drilled with rotaries on the Pantheon, and the building of the new tool had it patented. He is the success of it and will make arrangements for its use in the rotary tool he has looked at it and believe it will do all that is said

M. & M. HAS REASONS.

Secretary Zeehendelar Explains
Why His Organization Did Not Take Up Aviation Meet.

Concerning the reason why the Merchants and Manufacturers Association
did not call to meet its annual aviation meet in January, Secretary Zeehendelar has sent the following self-explanatory letter under date of December 3, to M. C. Neur, chairman of the Aviation Committee:

"In view of the fact that the Merchants and Manufacturers Association,
through its Board of Directors, has declined to call to meet its
annual aviation meet in January,
it is due to you and to the public to know the reasons that have impelled the board to take that action."

"First, we do not believe that any aviation that can be held in the near future will produce the advertising advantages that accrued from the meet last year, that being the first held in America, and attracted considerable attention throughout the world. Since that time many more have been held throughout the country, and it is therefore problematical whether a sufficient attendance can be secured to pay the large expenditures necessary to make the meet a success."

"Second, the aviators have offered to fly here a large guarantee in addition to the prizes offered.
Our experience last year has conclusively shown that to guarantee any sum of money to secure an attendance of the aviators in making sensational flights.
We believe that the time has arrived when aviators should be secured without the offering of large sums of money."

"Third, aviation is no longer a novelty, as practically every part of the United States has been given an opportunity to witness great flights of aerial navigation.

"At the present time several free flights have been arranged in this city and Pasadena, and the meet, as is intended here, will also be held in San Francisco, and probably in other sections of the country. Therefore we do not believe that the people of this city are willing to pledge or contribute a large amount of money for the holding of a meet."

"The climatic conditions of Los Angeles are so well known to be favorable to aviation during the entire year, but especially during the winter months, that in the near future aviators will naturally seek this advantage here without demanding a bonus."

LOST HILLS SYNDICATE.
AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

Special Correspondence of The Times.

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 5.—The Lost Hills Syndicate, a new organization in the oil game, is putting up ten standard rigs in the Lost Hills with the intention of beginning an active drilling campaign. The company is headed by Mr. Daniel E. A.
Horn and J. M. Kent. The latter has spent some weeks in the Lost Hills, and is confident that the field will be a great producer. He says he has found oil in paying quantities in the shallow sand, but the company will go down after the sand, which he thinks will be very thick and prolific.

Lost Hills Syndicate's rigs are being set up as follows: Four on section 6, 26-21; on section 6, 26-21;
on section 27, 25-20, one on section 28-20, and two on section 8, 28-21.

Local Oilmen are getting
a camp on section 26, 21, and
establish a camp on section 8,

28-21.

Lakeshore No. 2 is said to have had a good showing of oil at 125 feet, and a good showing of oil at 155 feet, and 215-21.

Local oilmen are getting
a camp on section 26, 21, and
establish a camp on section 8,

28-21.

Company of Coalings men is down foot with a train of oil on section 26-21.

Oil man close to the Agency management makes the optimistic prediction within a year from this date Agency will be scrapping all of its reserves for oil to supply customers. He says he does not see any further increase in the output of Sunset production, and he thinks the new contracts made for so soon to be made will more than
up the present surplus.

Contract recently made with the West Pacific was for a minimum of 1000 barrels per day, but it is expected that the new contracts will greatly exceed that amount.

The Northern is to take 4000 barrels per day, and it is expected that roads will extend the use of oil for as far as possible.

Oil man from the Northern and the Association under the terms of their recent contract, it is understood, net 10 cents per barrel at the present contracts probably soon to be closed are expected to net as

Surveyors have been completed and work of grading is soon to start on an extension of the Sunset Western Railroad from Fullerton, two and one-half miles to the northern end across the American River land on section 26, 21-22, and the Santa Fe's land on 25.
The extension will take the railroad nearly to the upper end of the Midway Valley, and will furnish transportation for the companies operating in that rich section of the field.

Plane of the Pyramid.

Re-drilling of well No. 1 on the Santa Paula property of the Pyramid Oil Company is progressing rapidly and the well has reached a depth of 1800 feet with a good showing of oil and gas. This well is being deepened to draw a deeper sand which was tapped by well No. 2, and will be finished in a depth of approximately 2000 feet. No. 2 well is now producing from 100 to 125 barrels per day and the oil is being sold as fast as pumped at 75 cents per barrel. On the 400-acre tract, which is owned by the Pyramid Company in Midway, the well being drilled by the Midway Prudential Oil Company operating under lease on section 26-22-23 has encountered the tar sand at a depth of about 1200 feet with a strong showing of oil and gas.

Out of Town Men Impressed.

Some out-of-town visitors to the oil fields last week were: O. B. Hindle, president of the First National Bank of Coos Bay, and A. B. Morris, a capitalist of New York. They were accompanied by Cromwell Simon, local manager of the Standard Oil Company, and E. H. H. Smith, representative of the Guaranty Oil Company.
The party returned from the field yesterday well pleased with their trip.
Said the young banker: "I have had the best view of the California oil fields, and after all was astonished at their wide area and richness.
I am now especially interested in the products of the Standard Oil Company. Surrounded as it is by property, it can not fail to soon add its share to the production of the Midway field."

Oil Properties Under Option.

J. E. Levy, secretary of the Atlanta, and the Mount Vernon Oil Companies, has received offers for these properties on an option basis, from several New York and Boston syndicates. They will be held for the best interests of all concerned to develop them. They are both in the Sulphur Mountain district, adjoin the Liberty and Puritan properties, and give every promise of becoming large producers of high gravity oil.

In Vallecito Field.

The latest company to enter the Vallecito field is the Sussex Oil Company, of which Edward Fox is secretary.
It is being held in the hope of getting supplies and machinery, and is prepared to do active development work.

Its property is in that of the Range Oil Company, which is getting down in good shape with its first well.

Copper Stocks Depreciate.

Boston, the eastern headquarters of the copper industry, reports that thirty-four of the leading Boston copper stocks, including five Arizona properties, show a total depreciation in their market value of over $2,000,000 from the high point of the current year.

Sage Well Capped.

The Union Oil Company's Sage well
No. 3 snuffed up shortly after its first spectacular performance. It is being drilled now, and it will have to be drilled a little deeper to get into the Lakeview sand. Five crown blocks have been blown off the derrick of Sage well No. 11 by the gas pressure.

Prisoners With a Chef.

Worthy citizens, scattered as in Nebraska, to select which Con-

CITRUS FAIR GREAT SUCCESS.

Tulare County Exposition Is Representative.

Diversity of Products of Section Amazes All.

Cataclysm Required to Rob Valley of Its Prosperity.

VISALIA, Dec. 6.—Most unique, most extensive, most representative of all Tulare County Citrus Fairs, the Visalia exposition which opened here last evening, promises to exceed by a large amount all previous fairs in the attendance record for the six nights and days of its continuance.

Significant of the 20,000 acres of citrus orchards in Tulare county's citrus belt, which large acreage 7000 acres of trees are now in full bearing, the oranges, pomelos and lemons occupy by the largest proportion of the exhibit space in the big pavilion, although a view of the extensive and diversified other products of the soil, the exhibits are by no means limited to citrus fruits but include deciduous fruits, dried fruits of every character, products of the apiculture and the dairy, as well as an extensive, instructive and representative collection of the products of the county, displays of Indian handicrafts; needle work and household industries receive recognition as well.

As its name implies, however, the fifth Annual Tulare County Citrus Fair has its chief exhibits from the true orchards and when one remembers it is only within the last ten years that the citrus culture has been seriously considered as an orange shipping country, the display is little less.

As one enters the door of the pavilion, looking from the outside entrance, the Porterville booth, a purely commercial exhibit, about 100 boxes of oranges and grape fruit being on display. That the booth lacks in artistic appeal, however, the exhibitors hope will be made up in excessiveness of the fruit, the oranges especially being in full color, remarkable texture and loaded with sugar. Indeed the remarkable maturity of the Washington Navel for this time of the season is cause for remark.

Other exhibits have been maintained by Tulare and Porterville and Visalia, we have a hint of the green alfalfa fields and the herds of fine cattle which have made possible the golden state's wealth, which are monotonously turned to streams of real gold.

One gets from the fair, too, an idea of the extent of the deciduous fruit industry which has made Visalia one of the largest fruit canning centers of California, gets a glimpse of mountain resorts where pines and hemlocks and game and fish are found only a step from the city door yards; one gets an adequate idea of the mountains of granite which are held in the grasp of the hills, only to reveal capital and brains to furnish the building material of the entire State; one sees the grain fields, which are still left, though making way for the more valuable and more profitable orchards; one sees the herds of cattle, which droves of horses, poultry and the sheep which add their quota.

In fact one cannot visit the fair without having the idea brought forcibly home that here is as nearly an ideal location as can be found in this country for the agricultural and industrial industry, is to be found in this home of the early orange and only a cataclysm could rule the district of its prosperity.

Special trains are to be run from the southern part of California during the course of the fair and it will be a trip worth making to see this, a great showing of a great county.

STRATHMORE'S EXHIBIT.

Strathmore, which but yesterday, especially in lighting, was in the midst of a great grain field, has an exhibit which is especially significant and which is considered by a large number the most striking of all the displays, Strathmore this year became an orange shipping point for the first time in its history, and the exhibit is the result of a formation of a live Chamber of commerce, one of the first duties of which was the designing and installation of a suitable exhibit at the Fifth annual fair, established by a resolution that the great fields of yesterday are the producing orange orchards of today. Strathmore's exhibit is in the form of a high globe, of green orange trees upon which the continents are represented in glowing colors. Strathmore's the Strathmore oranges exhibited is worthy of an especial mention and the Strathmore showing promises to take rank for originality and general effectiveness.

Strathmore has a novel exhibit, showing an iron mill wheel, which is a mechanical marvel, the lighting features which are worth and may receive an special award. Piled about the wheel are boxes of luscious fruit for which a Exeter district is famous.

Dimbush's windmill is attracting attention, it is in the center of the attention, not only called to the citrus fruits or the production of which she is just ginning to earn a fame, the booth is so crowded with Dimbush raisins and led fruit, which packed under the name of "Dimbush" have become much sought after throughout the eastern wholesale market centers.

HORN OF PLENTY.

Indicative of varied resources, of which the production of dairy and dairy products, with deciduous and led fruits and raisins, the Visalia exhibit takes the form of a huge horn of plenty from the capacities mouth of which the various fruits of the earth are shown in great profusion.

Tulare is rapidly realizing an early abutment to be known throughout the state as the leading dairy district of California, and therefore in the rather prominent position of the Tulare county city, the attention is not attracted rough strange design from the model on show or from the cubes of butter which bring monthly to the creameries of Tulare a round sun rising. An equally attractive and instructive exhibit is that of the Tulare orange, soil man of Tulare county. It is done relief, showing every hill and valley, every creek and river, all the hills and valley district is represented by the people of Tulare, the soil for which the district is noted. It is a very indicative of work and it is regrettable that nature is such that it is difficult to cultivate permanency.

Lindsay, the second city in population of the district, has a booth which is characterized by specimens of architecture and lighting and fruit, particularly striking. In the Lindsay exhibit an especial attention has been paid to display of grape fruits.

Orosi, famed as a producer of raisins the very best, is also proud of the fact that a large number of her lands have been adapted to citrus culture and literature is being attributed, which should convince one at the orange industry is much more than a mere possibility.

Lemon Court, considering the comparatively small population of that shipping center and the comparatively few orchards which are represented, has a showing, and this is especially true of the fruit of the fruit in the most Cox booth.

INDIAN HANDICRAFT.

Interesting to students of Indian handicraft is the exhibit which has been loaned to the fair committee, and in the exception of the one exhibit in the museum in Golden Gate Park it is asserted that the Visalia collection is a more varied and valuable one which has ever been brought together in California.

In this collection there are several baskets which are highly prized as were presented to the donor, Mrs. Edward Downing of Visalia, by Mrs. McKinley, the wife of the martyred President.

Industrial exhibits from the schools of Tulare county, as well as an extensive showing of electrical devices, ordinary implements of many kinds, with camping plants and other orchard products, are shown in large array as well as for the practical side of orchard activities.

Orange and green have been chosen the citrus fair colors, and miles of lining of these striking colors, curtains, blinds and side walls of the building which house the exhibits and are woven into the design of each one of the exhibits themselves. The colors

confronting anyone in need of a laxative is not a question of a single action only, but of permanently beneficial effects, which will follow proper efforts to live in a healthful way, with the assistance of Syrup of Fig and Elixir of Senna, whenever it is required, as it cleanses the system gently yet promptly, without irritation and will therefore always have the preference of all who wish the best of natural laxatives.

The combination has the approval of physicians because it is known to be truly beneficial, and because it has given satisfaction to the millions of well-informed families who have used it for many years past.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

too, are seen in the business district of this city, for Visalia is in gala dress and for this week there is to be a week of half a dozen or more business fairs of which Visalia is a self-appointed committee of one to see that every visitor is made very welcome and carries away with him an adequate idea of the resources and wealth of a great county.

One cannot visit the fifth annual fair without being impressed with the diversity of resources from which comes the Tulare county wealth. Oranges and lemons and grape fruit are considered two of the chief products, and with only one-third of the entire area in full bearing, it is evident that the day the Central California citrus belt will be disputing with Southern California the supremacy of a great State. It is only a step behind the orange pace that one finds in the dairy industry and in the big dairy exhibits which have been maintained by Tulare and Porterville and Visalia, we have a hint of the green alfalfa fields and the herds of fine cattle which have made possible the golden state's wealth, which are monotonously turned to streams of real gold.

PRETTY FIGHT OVER DEAD LAW.

Two Famous London Act-Managers Are Figuratively Cut Gaming for Each Other — Ellen Terry's Son May Return to London to Introduce Marvels of Stage Effects for Macbeth.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.

LONDON. Now more than ever the great variety "sketch" question has great appeal to the cream of London society; as it is de rigueur that every one in the highest fashionable West End clubs, and in the West End itself, be a most absurd and illogical in the world. Why, you doubtless and yourselves should a one-act play not be performed on the Vandale as freely as the open stage? In England our wonderful and altogether amazing licensing system forbids. But by a totally illegal agreement between theatrical and music-hall managers the law is evaded at every point and every turn. This agreement stipulates that no "sketch" shall in performance exceed thirty minutes or contain more than six speaking characters. Again, again, again, the conditions are defied by the production of pieces far beyond the limits indicated and the law is allowed to pass unnoticed. Mrs. Barnard, for instance, exceeded the prescribed time when she presented the second act of "Alizon" at the Coliseum and got a voice was failed, and the manager of the theater is Mrs. Barnard. Others are not always so fortunate as she. A fortnight ago Seymour Hicks gave at the Coliseum an abridged version of the last act of Shakespear's "Richard III." A splendid production, and counting supers, his company numbered 150 people. The piece played exactly thirty-eight minutes, or eight minutes in excess of the authorized time. The fact did not escape the attention of the Theatrical Managers' Association of which Beetham Tree is president. From the solicitors of that body Hicks had just received a letter saying that an injunction will be applied for and damages demanded unless he at once brings "Richard III" within the compass agreed upon. For a long time he rec'd and had been compelled to do so, for it now looks as if we were to have one worth watching.

MEN I HAVE MET.

BY TOM FITCH.

In the gallery of the Louvre in Paris no paintings are hung until ten years after the death of the artist who executed them. In these sketches I shall reverse the Louvre practice, and choose for my subjects only those who are no longer living in the flesh. There will be a good many of these, for I have lived a long time, and I command you to live at a very early age.

In 1848 I was the youngest student at the Westover Academy in North Wilbraham, Massachusetts. The first formal meeting that I ever attended was in the basement of the Methodist Church. It was held in behalf of the Free Soil candidates, Van Buren and Adams.

My father was a native of Lebanon, Connecticut, a descendant of a long line of Puritan ancestors, who, in the 17th century, emigrated to New England, and brought with them an extinguishable love of civil and religious liberty. During the war of 1812 my father bought a small farm in New Haven and accepted a commission in the 1st Connecticut Artillery. He was a fugitive from the blockade into Charleston, South Carolina, where, after disposing of vessel and cargo, he engaged in the mercantile business, and became a wealthy man. He returned north, married, and settled in New York City, where I was born.

During his residence in Charleston he never owned but one slave and he did not purchase it for the purpose of giving it his freedom and sending him north. My father was an old line Whig, with strong abolition tendencies, and my mother was Massachusetts born. The Abolition movement in my family was a man of great energy and eloquence, and he was a constant opponent to the South.

This very week he announces that he is preparing a version in five scenes of "Joan of Arc" to be performed in a more elaborate and sumptuous style at the Coliseum after Christmas. To neither him nor myself, however, does he seem to have any knowledge of the art of theater, and that it is to be produced in a more elaborate and sumptuous style at the Coliseum after Christmas. Now it is worth remembering that two long ago announced the opening of the London Park, and my mother wrote him from Paris a while, of course, there is in the house in which Maude Adams has appeared under Charles Parker's management at the famous Martin and Co. that you may imagine all this is really owing to managers who find their ideas anticipated and their plans

FREDERICK DOUGLAS.

That magnificent mulatto was then in the prime of his youthful manhood. He followed "Richard III" at His Majesty's with a notable display of power. Chilling with Hicks, a week later, he boldly declared to the author of "Richard" that he would not be a party to the author's desire to spite his countrymen by so much as a sentence of Shakespeare's tragedy at the Coliseum. The author of "Richard" produced his and so wrote to take the wind out of his sails, offering him a part in the play, but the fact that "he even thought of such a step above" was charged with electricity. As I anticipated would be the tree's negotiations with Oscar to migrate to His Majesty's and there in "Richard III" Parker would have been "a great success."

Tree complains that Oscar has treated him rather badly in master, and Oscar Asche indignantly retorts that he has no grounds for protesting against Tree's favor. Doubtless there is something to be said on both sides.

Tree's negotiations are on.

"Count Hannibal" to the Garde and Tree produces "Macbeth" at His Majesty's. Arthur Bourdier and his wife remain with him, the former to play the part of Macduff, the latter that of Lady Macbeth. Gordon Craig, Ellen Terry's son, has already joined Tree in re-telling the story of the more than half of the production, and he is invited to complete his work. Craig, now living in Florence and whether he is prepared to return to England is not known. Tree, however, from the start day saying that he had received a most tempting offer to go to America, but he has some grounds for preferring to remain in London and there his attitude is not known.

However, I know it is very about "Macbeth" and am fairly inclined to believe that he will eventually accept the offer.

Tree's proposal, if he does not accept, will be to go to America.

He is to be at a theater in London the other night with John W. May who, as you know, has written new "Richard" for the time being.

He is about to forsake his theater and will cross the water early in December in order to witness the great performance in New York of his chosen drama.

He says that he is about to start a new career.

It is to be printed, and

PEACE ALONG BORDER LINE.

Disgruntled Politicians Are Making All the Noise.

So Reports Epes Randolph at Tucson, Arizona.

New Line to Be Built by the Southern Pacific.

Special Correspondence of The Times.]
TUCSON (Ariz.) Dec. 2.—The Good Government League has entered actively upon a campaign for the betterment of civic conditions in Tucson. At a late meeting plans were discussed for securing a commission form of government and for a possible consolidation of the city with the county under one government, a scheme declared to be particularly applicable locally for the greater part of the population of Pima county is resident within the present city limits. Sewerage and sanitation problems were discussed at length. The league will undertake a campaign for securing a branch of the Y. M. C. A. an institution considered especially needed in Tucson on account of the large number of young men employed in the railroad shops and on the railroad. The presence of the university students.

General Manager Epes Randolph of the Harriman system branch roads in the Southwest and in Mexico has returned from a trip over the new west-coast line, bringing information that, by the concession granted by the Federal government to Mexico, the Southern Pacific has been empowered and encouraged to build from Guadalajara to the City of Mexico. The road will be built in two sections, one through 400 miles of very hilly country, the other through 400 miles of flat land and through a region valuable in a traffic way. The west-coast road is finished to a point forty miles from the city. The east-coast connection, which has been explored in about two years, has been extended to five years, and that of the road up the Yaqui River, at one time considered as possible, has been, to ten years. To assure the ultimate construction of the chief sections named in the concessions, the Southern Pacific has deposited with the Treasury Department at Mexico the sum of $45,000 in Mexican gold.

The new headquarters of the western system at Empalme, near Guaymas, have gradually assumed all the offices of the system, only the traffic offices now being left at Guaymas, the terminal office. The railroad capital was moved last week from Guaymas to Empalme.

Surveys employed by the El Paso and Southern system are working northward from El Paso, apparently in the direction of Winkelman or Marfa, with a view to the establishment of the most economical connection with the Southwestern road projected down the coast to the Pacific. The road toward Phoenix. The greater part of the way is over a plain, but one subject to serious springtime floods. There is some possibility, however, that the road will be built through the mountains made through Tucson, favored by the offer of free deposit and shop grounds. The same committee that secured the Southwestern grounds in this city has been instrumental in securing the Port Lobo railroad, in the event that it shall here connect with the Southwestern.

According to Col. Randolph, "The time of a general revolution in Mexico is the worst rot and without substantial foundation. I have just been down in Mexico for a week, and saw no sign of disorder or of prejudice against the United States who do the same thing, as evidenced by the border up to San Los Angeles. There had the burning of the Southern Pacific shop in Tucson. No country under the sun is more firmly, safely or humanely governed than Mexico."

From all along the Arizona border indicate no trouble whatever. United States troops are maintaining this country's neutrality and are making impossible the passage of arms or men across the border. It is a wise measure. This work has been done in by the customs guards, a mounted force of unusual efficiency, mainly composed of well-mounted men, thoroughly familiar with the country. Collectors Con O'Kane's wishes that the press advise the public that published reports of trouble in Nogales do not refer to the Arizona border, but to the border between Nogales to a town of the same name in the Mexican State of Vera Cruz, in the southern part of Mexico.

The general report of peace along the border, which the news from Mexico sources received daily by Col. Elias, Mexican Consul in Tucson. To the Consul lately was sent a huge union reciting in Spanish that forty-two Tucson Mexicans had started for Mexico to join the revolution. This is thought merely a joke, for recent search of the Mexican quarter fails to develop the absence of a single "paseo" whose views on the street corners are not in accord with those of Diaz.

SERIOUS CHARGE IS FILED.

Visalia Man Arrested at Instigation of Young Woman Will Be Tried for White Slave Traffic, It Is Alleged.

VISALIA, Dec. 4.—Luke Orthman, well-known young man about town, who was arrested here yesterday on a charge of seduction, preferred against him by Anna Kellner, a 17-year-old San Francisco girl, has a much more serious offense to face, being charged by the Bay City executives who are in the employ of a society for vice prevention, with white slaving, it being asserted that he has placed the young women in houses of the underworld.

Detective Furnam, who arrived from San Francisco this morning to take Orthman into custody on the first complaint, stated to the officers here that the only charge against the young man will be preferred against him in the Bay City. It is asserted by the officer in whose charge Orthman was placed for his return to San Francisco, that they have no evidence that he has placed one young woman in a low resort on the Barbary Coast, and that he attempted to place the Kellner girl in such a position as to get her also into the clutches of the brutes who frequent such dens in the San Francisco underworld.

The accused is a member of a prominent and well-known family here, and when arrested on the seduction charge he maintained an air of sullen indifference, making the statement that "somebody would suffer" for his arrest.

When confronted with the second and graver charge he asserted hysterically that both arrests were the result of spite, and that Johnny Orthman that he would be able to establish his innocence without trouble.

Numbers of friends have arranged to go his bonds when he is arraigned, although it is said several charges are preferred, and heavy bail demanded for each count.
